This was the status of the case afer a cabinet meeting today. The of-icially accepted view was that Vercara was fured across the border and nurdered and his body was subseently recovered by his own friends not Texas rangers-who crossed in-Mexico as private individuals and es an armed expedition.

After today's cabinet meeting, at birh Consul Garrett's reports were end, Secretary Hryan made the fol-owing paraphrane of Mr. Colquit's telegrams: "Consul Garrett went with Captain Funders of the Texas angers and a deputy shoriff to Palaox. Texas, Saturday, for the purpose of making further investigation in the Vergara case. They went to the Bergara ranch, and examined witnessen who saw the horses belonging to Vergara taken by the Mexicans and who so saw Vergara cross the river and those who saw him captured. The investigation kept them up late Saturday night, when they reached Cole-man's camp two miles above Palafex. where they are supper und concluded o remain over night.

"About 4 a. m., they were inform ed that Vergara's body was on the Texas side of the river. Consul Garrett roused the chauffour of his automobile and went five or six miles
